

Teach English!

A unique course designed by St Mary's Community Centre and University of Sheffield to enable complete beginners to teach and make a real difference in the community.

"I started teaching with no previous experience. On the 'Teach English!' course I've picked up loads of different and more appropriate ways of teaching. I've met lots of people through St. Mary's"

Adam, Volunteer

No prior teaching experience required

just enthusiasm for teaching English as a second language a desire to make a difference and able to speak and write English to GCSE equivalent

Following an initial 5 week training period you will have the opportunity to work alongside experienced tutors in English speaking classes.

"I've been in the decorating business since I left school...The multicultural interaction at St. Mary's has been fascinating for me. On the 'Teach English!' course I've learnt a lot about the language that I've been speaking for more than 40 years. A course like this enables people like me to get a foothold on the ladder of language teaching."

Pat, Volunteer

"I don't feel integrated into English culture at all. We cannot speak English, we don't know the culture and we are scared of appearing rude" Sun Jihai (ex-Sheffield United defender)

Starts November 8th 2010. For more details and
