Salt And Light

This years Diocesan Development Day, focusses on the call to be Salt and Light.

On Saturday October 6th (doors open from 9.00 am, coffee and registration 9.20 am, opening praise 10.00 am - concludes 3.30pm) we're inviting representatives of every parish in the diocese to a day to share learning on how to serve our society. This is all about fulfilling that part of our diocesan vision statement which calls all Christian communities to seek to transform our society and God's world.

The key note speaker for the day is Ann Morisy, community theologian and author of best selling books Beyond the Good Samaritan and Journeying Out as well as Bothered and Bewildered. She speaks widely at conferences and special events and directed the commission which wrote the report Faithful Cities (the follow-up to Faith in the City). The keynote speech is entitled 'Followers of Jesus in Tough Times'

Seminars will include sessions on global justice, the Bible and politics, understanding asylum and renewing the earth. A panel of speakers will address issues of ethics in business and unemployment.

More on the diocesan website <http://www.sheffield.anglican.org>

Speak to Julian or Karen if you'd like to go.

Next Sunday – 9th September

9.30 BCP Holy Communion in the Chapel

10.30 All Age Worship:

People with jobs to do: Barbara (drinks); Kate & Odette (stewards); Bryony, Steve, Reuben (music)

Reflections on Summer Celebrations. Come and experience a flavour of various Christian camps and festivals as we share together something of what we have heard, learned and enjoyed. Please bring your camping chairs and picnic blankets to this service if you can.

If anyone has photos they'd like to share, please contact Steve, or add them to our online flickr group if you can.
