Timebuilders At St Marys

A great way for people to help others in their community and be rewarded for it – in time. Each hour you spend doing something for someone else in the community earns you a time credit which can be spent on other activities or help. Everyone has something they can do to contribute, no matter how big or small. You can be in credit or debit, but the success of timebuilders is down to all that members do to keep trading.

Everyone's contribution is equally important. One hour = one hour.

People of all ages and abilities can join in to build community an hour at a time.

Timebuilding Needed

Freecycle Enthusiasts: Lee needs help finding and collecting furniture on freecycle because he's moving into a new house. He'll pay for petrol. He's after a wardrobe, drawers, a settee, chairs, washing machine and coffee table (someone needs plenty of volunteers who could help in a couple of months!) Lee has put in a lot of hours to the Recovery Cafe, a dry social space and community centre. It'd be great if we could help him in return.

Whittlers: James has been helping teach guitar a couple of times a week and hasn't been sure to now what he'd like in return. He's finally decided on whittling - could you or someone you know help him if whittling is available after work and on weekends.

Laptop with Photoshop: We still need someone with photoshop on their laptop. Ms. Bafrin wants to improve her job prospects by learning how to use the program, and Bafrin can teach her, but we don't have a laptop at the centre that has it on.

Door/Cement Finders: If anyone has either of these things, please contact so we can get started on making a shed at Morley street allotments.

Timebuilding Offers

Bouldering Help: Anyone who wants to go bouldering, a group of us are going next weekend. Anyone experienced in bouldering can help out with timecredits by helping newbies.

Flute Lessons: If you'd like some flute lessons, we have a lady who'd be really happy to teach you. We'll pay for English help.

Sewing Lessons: Ever wanted to make your own clothes? We have several people at the centre offering to teach people how to sew.

This newsletter is available on the website. To submit news or to receive emails, contact steve@to-let also have machines at the centre for experienced sewers that can be used in exchange for a time credit.

Henna Art: If you're after henna for a special occasion or just for fun, contact us - if you pay a couple of pounds for a packet of mehndi, the rest will go to a timecredit.

Crochet Lessons: Rosaleen from C.A.S.T is interested in teaching you how to crochet. One time credit per hour.

Baking Lessons: Celia is eager to get involved, she's an excellent cake baker. She volunteers with the centre, so we'd need a bit of notice if you want this one!

Walking: If anyone would like their dog to be walked occasionally we have a couple near Bramall who'd be more than happy to help you out.

Spanish Conversation: We have a couple of new people who are new to the city and happy to help you practise your Spanish conversation.
